Which is not to say that Before I Say Good-Bye doesn't have a bit of all the ingredients of the Clark genre: a little mystery, a likable heroine, and even a nice guy who turns up midway through the novel and promises her romance and a second chance at happiness. But while the set-up is ... Before I Say Good-Bye was no different, with an interesting premise and the added intrigue of the paranormal, it was a fun and quick read. While I did figure out the "twist" early on in the novel, I was still interested in Nell's story and the other points of view that we were presented along the way.
