A Guide to Home Pest Control Keep pests, rodents and bugs out for good with our solutions for pest-free homes. Mothballs have not worked for me and this is my 3rd skunk underneath my house. Unfortunately it is an old house and the smell of it's spray just creeps right on up in through the floor boards so my house has stunk horrifically 3 different times now and one of those is currently. They plow the soil and eat insects such as grubs. Of course, they do leave behind some tunnels.. And while they don't eat your plants, they can disturb them. After many frustrating years of having these pesky rodents "stealing" bird food I arrived at a solution that has the squirrels cursing me.
