

Download Preschool Craft About Genesis Day And Night

A simple take home craft for Sunday School! Children color in each day of creation then cut out to make a Creation Story Wheel. Children can share the creation story with friends and family. Welcome! I am Julie Anne a homeschool mom to four usually adorable kids living in the Midwest. Here at my site, I will share with you ideas, resources and lots of printables to help you add fun and learning into all areas of family life. Hello! I hope you don't mind that I linked a linky to your linky...its just that it goes so well. I hope you will add this post to the linky I posted...its a wonderful craft and just the sort of thing I was hoping to find, as my linky is about Celebrating St. Patricks day as a Christian holiday. Check out all of my faith-based Easter crafts and recipies for kids here!. Making an Easter candle (also known as a Paschal Candle) to use at home can be a great religious Easter tradition for your family! The ones we made were made were super easy to do, and I used candles from the Dollar Tree, so this project seriously only cost us $1.
